Weekly lessons paid in advance: $40

*Please speak to staff to discuss paid in advance discount

Riding attire: Students must wear safe and appropriate riding attire

Long sturdy pants: Jeans or riding breeches are preferred. Slick materials such as leggings are not recommended.

Footwear: Closed toe shoes are required for any interaction with horses and a boot with a heel is required for riding.

Helmets: Helmets are mandatory for any rider under 18 years of age and recommended for all riders. Helmets are available to borrow in the kitchen. If you choose to purchase your own helmet, please be sure to purchase a helmet designed for horseback riding.

Gloves: Gloves are optional but not required. Gloves are recommended in cold weather.

Scheduling and cancellation:

Lessons are typically booked for the same time slot each week unless otherwise specified. Riding in the same time slot each week assures that your usual time will remain available to you.

For one time or non recurring lessons, please speak to a staff member to schedule a time

Please give 24 hours notice of cancellation of any scheduled lesson. Lessons that are cancelled without 24 hours notice will be charged for the time slot that was reserved. We understand that unexpected emergencies or illness can occur, if it is not possible to give 24 hours notice due to illness or an emergency please contact a staff member as soon as possible and we will do our best to accommodate you. No shows for lessons without any warning beforehand will be charged for the time slot(s) that were reserved.

Please contact Ryan at (860) 749-4797 for all lesson inquiries including scheduling and lesson cancellations. If there is no answer, a voicemail can serve as notice of a cancellation.
